FUR LOVE SOUL STORY...the love continues...)

My Essence Illustration of Lilly, Joan and Katie’s fur love...she has soft pink and gold of healing all around her.

Fur Love SOUL STORY: “Star gazing”

I have had the honor to help and heal many fur loves...feathered too! One read stands out for me due to a deep friendship with the fur folk’s “person”.

The communication with Lilly the dog of Joan and her daughter Katie, good friends. Joan passed late last year...she was a dear friend, a humble powerhouse of a person, and animal wellness advocate. She began Animal Essentials holistic supplements now owned by Greg of Animal Apothecary.

Most of all, Joan has an energy of laughter, determination, personal strength that was a magnet to all to find hope, understanding, and knowledge...all with a smile, and good vibes.

She LOVED Golden Retrievers. Lilly is a White Golden Lab who came into Joan and Katie’s life to help with all surrounding Joan’s wonderful final years in the physical. Lilly was and is the heart “caretaker” for Joan and Katie!

I communicated with Lilly a few times due to Joan’s concerns about her own and Lilly’s health...also, Joan’s care and love for her daughter Katie during Joan’s declining health.

Lilly was the official “guard dog” for home and heart...standing always by Joan and Katie’s side. Yet, she kept Joan up at night wanting to go “out”...then she would just sit and look up for about an hour, then want back in.

What to do with this night time need? We talked heart to heart about this and the fact it was a worry to her “person”. Lilly’s response was that she loved looking at the stars at night, she found peace, she loved staring at the stars, this was her way of relaxing, of finding quiet beauty.

From then on, Joan joined Lilly gazing at the stars on warm nights. Joan no longer worried about “why”...now at peace with the night stars.

Joan made an appointment with me to give a heart to heart conversation with Lilly with her questions and Katie’s questions scheduled for after her death. She wanted to make sure Lilly knew she loved her beyond the physical, and wanted to give her messages of comfort for both Lilly and Katie.

It was an honor to do this read for Katie after Joan passed.

I look at the stars and know Joan is smiling down at all of us, wishing us laughter, kindness, love, and strength.

Never saying Goodnight Joan, I say, “Hello, see you in the stars!”

That’s a SOUL STORY. So glad I have given and received deep heart talk from so many...I am blessed.

WHO, HOW, AND WHAT?

What is the Tiger like, and other good stories for the new year. Newsweek has a good story on: “Year of the Tiger: What the Tiger Represents on Chinese New Year”.
